

NCBAA Safety Day 2017

Agenda

0730-0800: Check-in and continental breakfast

0745-0800: President's Welcome, Agenda, Housekeeping

0800-0900: Craig Hoskins, Airbus

- Present on the Airbus project to address current and future threats that encompass the Aircraft, Air Transportation System and the Operation

0900-0945: David Karalunas, FAA Policy Lead, Compliance Philosophy Focus Team

- Present on recent change to the "FAA Compliance Philosophy" that outlines a new approach to ensuring that airmen and regulated entities meet regulatory standards, and to foster an open and transparent exchange of data between the user and FAA entities

0945-1000: Morning Break

1000-1130: Russ Lawton, Air Charter Safety Foundation

- Present on ACSF ASAP program for participating Part 91 and 135 operators, as well as the ACSF Industry Audit Standard for charter operators and fractional aircraft ownership companies

1130-1230: Buffet Lunch

1230-1300: NCBAA Scholarship awards and announcements

1300-1430: Michael Huhn, NTSB Western-Pacific Regional Air Safety Investigator

- Present on the nuts and bolts of accident investigation from an Investigator-in-Charge (IIC) standpoint, the role of FAA in investigations, the party system and family assistance.

1430-1500: Afternoon Break

1500-1600: Robert Sumwalt, NTSB Acting Chairman/Designated Vice Chairman

- Present on Culture, Compliance and Leadership in safe business aviation operations

1600-1630: Wrap up

We would like to thank our wonderful sponsors of the 2017 Safety Day!

